

1869

Man-made plastic called celluloid, it was invented by American John Wesley Hyatt. This cellulose sulfate and camphor mixture, though flammable, was strong and pliable enough for use in a variety of common household items.

Nov. 17, 1869

The Suez Canal opened in Egypt